

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of Show-Me State residents who have admirably devoted themselves to a wide variety of endeavors related to the care and nurturing of children; and

Whereas, Angela Bryant of Florissant, Missouri, will receive well-deserved recognition at the Regional Child Care Seminar and Trade Show Breakfast on May 8, 2003, as the operator of Kids-N-Motion, Incorporated, and Child Care Consulting and Design; and

Whereas, a 1990 graduate of ITT Technical Institute with an Associate's degree in electronic engineer technology, Angela Bryant subsequently returned to the classroom on a part-time basis from 1992 to 1998 to become a well-trained and knowledgeable Childcare Facility Director through studies at Florissant Valley Community College; and

Whereas, today Angela Bryant operates five childcare centers which are open twenty-four hours per day, six days per week to meet the diverse needs of parents across a wide area of the County and the City of St. Louis; and

Whereas, Angela Bryant first operated a childcare facility in August 1992, and followed that successful experience by opening another daycare home in May 1994, one in May 1995 under her direction, a third location in April 1999, a fourth in June 2001, and a fifth in March 2003; and

Whereas, along the way Angela Bryant founded the WWAC Boys Club in 1995, the Young People Association in 1995, and The School of Professional Entrepreneurs (SCOPE) in March 2003, with Advantage Childcare Service scheduled to open in June 2003:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the selection of Angela Bryant for special recognition at the Regional Child Care Seminar and Trade Show Breakfast to be conducted on May 8, 2003, at Ameren Corporation Headquarters in association with 2003 Small Business Administration-Small Business Week events and the United Way; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Angela Bryant of Florissant, Missouri.

Offered by _____ Representative Juanita Head Walton
District No. 81

I, Catherine L. Hanaway, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, First Regular Session, do certify that the above is a true and correct copy of House Resolution No. 2609, adopted May 7, 2003.

Catherine L. Hanaway, Speaker